PROLOGUE

I bid you take my hand and lead me
Where my uncertain steps hesitate to go.
I beg you to help me find my way.
Be the light in my darkness;
Be the guardian of my hopes and dreams;
The voice that says, "Go on!"

Enable me to bow my head in humbleness,
Yet to walk with spirit and determination.
Strengthen me when I am weak;
forgive me when I falter;
Laugh with me and bring me joy;
weep with me, yet,
Have no patience with foolish tears.

I have asked much of you—
In return I have much to give.
I shall give you the music of laughter,
The warmth of love, the chatter of friends,
The strength of unity, the fervor of excitement,
The miracle of life within your walls.

The way is not easy,
It demands our best—our all.
To fail each other is to banish our own
hopes and dreams;
To place faith in one another is the key
to our happiness.
There is much before us.
Let us begin here—together.

SERVICE

DEDICATION

We wish ta say "thank you" to someone wha has truly earned our grateful appreciatian. As a teacher, as a dedicated worker, as a friend, there are few like her. She receives special appreciation from the seniars. They are well aware af haw much time and effort she devates to them. But her services by no means end with the senior class. Her kindness, understanding, and undying patience have made her dear in the hearts af the student body at J.F. Webb.

The annual staff is praud to dedicate the nine-hundred and sixty-five WILDCAT to Miss Eugenia Bayd.

MR. BRUCE F. SLOAN
Principal

If a school is to run smoothly, efficiently, and for the general benefit of all, it must have capable and dedicated leadership. J.F. Webb High School is fortunate to have such leadership. We, the students, acknowledge and appreciate the invaluable services which these people perform so well.

STUDENT COUNCIL

LUTHER CARRINGTON
President

JOY FORSYTHE
Vice President

At the first of the year, each homeroom chooses one person who they feel is most capable of repsenting them in student government affairs. These elected representatives, plus four officers elected by the student body, make up the student council. This organization is the voice of the student body and furnishes the all-important link between students and faculty. Among other projects, the student council is in charge of Homecoming each year. We are grateful to our student council for its leadership and service.

The things that happen each day ... the faces, the places ... the victories, the defeats ... the thousands of big and little events—all of these are a part of our lives and the things we shall remember for years to come. May this volume of the WILDCAT not only record these events for the present but also serve as a treasury of memories for the future.

My deepest appreciation goes to the staff and Mrs. Kay Slaughter for the time and effort which they have spent and the genuine interest which they have shown in the success of this annual. Our goal has been to create an annual of classic interest; one which will recall pleasant associations, cherished friendships and memorable events of an unforgetable four years. I proudly present to you, the students, your WILDCAT for 1965.

LATIN II

Webb's Latin Club numbers 137 members this year. Club meetings are held during regular class periods once a month. The Latin Club's motto is "Cognoscamus", meaning AALet Us Learn."

These highlights shine out every year: the Latin banquet in April; the annual J.C.L. convention in Chapel Hill in March; and the national J.C.L. convention every August, which as many as are able (scholastically and financially) may attend. J.C.L. national will convene at the University of Southern California this year.

On the state level, Webb's Latin Club has been very active, Betsy Suit was '64-'65 vice president of the North Carolina J.C.L. At the '65 convention in Chapel Hill, the Webb Romans were in charge of the devotional and also furnished the entertainment. Betsy presented the '65 TORCH to the delegates. Everyone agreed that she did a superior job.

The J.F. Webb Wildcats had a very successful football season, settling for a third place tie with Roxboro. The 'Cats were in the battle for the loop crown up to the final game, when they bowed to Roxboro, 23-7. While compiling their 6-4 record, the Wildcats had a 5-0 home slate, bringing their two-year home record to 8-1-1, second best in the District. Being led by co-captains Marty Yancey and David Cannady, the Wildcats beat Wakelon (26-12), co-champion Chapel Hill (8-7), Orange (25-7), Southern (13-0), Jordan (40-7), and Henderson (25-7), while losing only to co-champion Northern (20-29), Dunn (7-13), Henderson (7-19), and Roxboro. Four Wildcats were placed on the All District III team. Tony Oakes and Bill Willis were named to the second team, while Robert Corbitt and David Cannady were placed on the first team. Cannady also got All-East and All-State honors while becoming the first player in District history to capture the scoring crown and the player of the year award for two years in a row. Other lettermen on the team were Bobby Frazier and Donald Warren at end, Ben Barker at tackle. Earl Rose and Jim Byars at guard, Danny Williford at center, Kenny Cox at halfback, and Charles Barker at the fullback slot.

With five returning lettermen, including Jay Perkinson who spent the '64 season on the sidelines with an injured shoulder, Coach Parham is hoping for another successful season.

MASCOT

The senior mascot is a five-year-old cutie with blue eyes and dark hair. Jan Parham attends kindergarten and is one of the youngest "Beatle" fans around. She has many loves including her hound dog, Sam; dancing; and a bicycle with no training wheels! Jan's father, Mr. John Parham, coaches at Webb High School, and naturally Jan shares his love of football. She also has an eight-year old brother with whom she likes to play "war". Like most little girls, Jan has many dolls which all receive motherly care and attention.

The seniors are very proud of their little mascot. They all wish for Jan a most happy and successful future.

EPILOGUE

A sunset ... the stroke of a clock ...
The last note of a beautiful song—
These signify an end.
Yet, they possess a quiet beauty all their own
I bid farewell to you—to a part of my life—
To a time I shall never again know.
Yet I now pause for just a moment to look back.

The nights we beat Henderson ... the crowds in the lunchroom ...
The scramble for bus tickets ... the roar of the crowd at the games ...
The dashes through the rain ... the sleepy eyes on Monday morning ...
The late hours during exams ... the quiet or noise of my study hall ...
The research in the library ... the jams between classes ...
The smile of a friend ... the face of a clock ... the sound of a bell ...
Elections and the dragging hours ... the disappointment ... the joy ...
The first issues of our Spectator ... the pep rallies ... snow and days of freedom ...
A favorite teacher ... a job well done ... an obligation well met ... pride—
The good and the bad intermingle.
And suddenly I realize—
Together we have made memories.

Even though I have waited long for this day;
Still—I cannot leave without a small twinge—
a thought—
Perhaps without having these memories fill my mind.
For I may never know more joyous days—
Though I once wished them over so quickly—without a thought.

Yes, now I bid you farewell;
Yet perhaps someday I shall be able to see
It was never farewell at all—
It was only thank-you.

"We're through!"
